H.J.R. No. 31

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment authorizing the exemption from ad valorem taxation of income-producing personal property and mineral interests having a value insufficient to recover the tax administrative costs.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 1, Article VIII, Texas Constitution, is amended by amending Subsection (d) and adding Subsections (g) and (h) to read as follows:

(d) The Legislature by general law shall exempt from ad valorem taxation household goods not held or used for the production of income and personal effects not held or used for the production of income. The Legislature by general law may exempt from ad valorem taxation:

(1) all or part of the personal property homestead of a family or single adult, "personal property homestead" meaning that personal property exempt by law from forced sale for debt; and

(2) subject to Subsections ~~[Subsection]~~ (e) and (g) of this section, all other tangible personal property, except structures which are personal property and are used or occupied as residential dwellings and except property held or used for the production of income.

(g) The Legislature may exempt from ad valorem taxation tangible personal property that is held or used for the production of income and has a taxable value of less than the minimum amount sufficient to recover the costs of the administration of the taxes on the property, as determined by or under the general law granting the exemption.

(h) The Legislature may exempt from ad valorem taxation a mineral interest that has a taxable value of less than the minimum amount sufficient to recover the costs of the administration of the taxes on the interest, as determined by or under the general law granting the exemption.

SECTION 2. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 7, 1995. The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation personal property and mineral interests having a value insufficient to recover the administrative costs of collecting the taxes."

H.J.R. No. 34

proposing a constitutional amendment to increase the amount of general obligation bonds authorized for veterans' housing assistance.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article III, Texas Constitution, is amended by adding Section 49-b-3 to read as follows:

Sec. 49-b-3. (a) In addition to the general obligation bonds authorized to be issued and to be sold by the Veterans' Land Board by Sections 49-b, 49-b-1, and 49-b-2 of this article, the Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the state in an amount not to exceed $500 million to provide housing financing to veterans of the state in recognition of their service to this state and the United States. The Veterans' Land Board may enter into bond enhancement agreements with respect to the bonds. The proceeds from the issuance and sale of the bonds authorized by this section shall be used to augment the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II to be administered and invested as provided by law.

(b) The principal of and interest on the general obligation bonds authorized by this section, including payments under bond enhancement agreements with respect to principal of or interest on the bonds, shall be payable from the sources and in the manner provided by Section 49-b-2 of this article for general obligation bonds issued under that section to augment the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II.

(c) The general obligation bonds authorized by this section shall be issued and sold in forms and denominations, on terms, at times, in the manner, at places, and in installments the Veterans' Land Board determines. The bonds shall bear a rate or rates of interest the Veterans' Land Board determines. The bonds authorized by this section shall be incontestable after execution by the Veterans' Land Board, approval by the attorney general, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers of the bonds.

SECTION 2. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 7, 1995. The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to increase by $500 million the amount of general obligation bonds that may be issued to augment the veterans' housing assistance fund II."
